James Hanson, VP Strategic Alliances at Prophix:

"We are very pleased to announce that Micropole BeLux has joined the Prophix Partner Network and look forward to connecting with more organizations throughout EMEA. Micropole BeLux has experience and expertise working with finance departments and understands the unique challenges and distinct needs of these teams. Leveraging the Prophix Financial Performance Platform, finance leaders are empowered to plan for the unexpected, collaborate on budgets and easily consolidate data to steer their businesses with speed and flexibility.»

Nico Sacré, Director Finance Transformation & Performance at Micropole BeLux

A good software partnership is like a marriage. Committed from day 1 from both parties and you are there for each other when things are a bit more difficult. The commitment, the vibe & attention has been there from day 1 we started talking about this. The more and more it crystallizes, the better it becomes. We are confident when difficult times might arise during implementation, Prophix will be there till the end. We look forward to doing great things together for our customers in the mid-market.

Moving forward

The strategic partnership between Prophix and Micropole BeLux is an ideal pairing of financial performance management expertise for both enterprises and midmarket companies.
